

OATH

Being fully aware of the responsibilities of a doctoral student of the Doctoral School of Poznan University of Technology, I do solemnly swear:

- to persistently widen and develop my knowledge and skills,
- to protect the dignity of a doctoral student and good reputation of my University,
- to respect the principles of academic community coexistence and the regulations in force at the University.