Justification / Uzasadnienie

The doctoral student conducted literature studies, formulated a scientific research problem and adopted a detailed research program. The work is carried out according to the schedule. The work brings scientific value and significant application value. The PhD student completed approx. 50% of the IRP. PhD student should strongly intensify the experimental research.

The PhD student is active in publishing, he has completed a scientific internship. The course of research, processing of results and conclusions presented in the periodic report is exhaustive, logical and contains a sufficient and scientifically justified interpretation. The results of the research confirm the assumptions made at the beginning. The results of the work are the subject of prepared publications. The Commission does not see any threats to delays and correctness of the preparation of the doctoral dissertation.

The PhD student answered the questions of the Commission in a comprehensive and correct manner. Internships related to realization of the doctoral dissertation should be organised and completed within next year. The supervisor help and cooperation in this will be highly recommended.
