Justification / Uzasadnienie

The doctoral student conducted literature research, formulated a scientific research problem, and adopted a detailed research program. The work is being carried out according to schedule. The work provides scientific value and significant applied value. The doctoral student has completed approximately 50% of the IRP.

The doctoral student is highly active in publishing and presenting his research results at conferences. He received funding for a one-year project for doctoral students under the PhD Boost program. He has established a partnership with a commercial entity, Pekabex. The research process, results analysis, and conclusions presented in the Periodic Report are comprehensive, logical, and provide sufficient and scientifically sound interpretation. The obtained research results confirm the assumptions made at the outset. The results of the work are the subject of prepared publications.

The Committee sees no threats to the delays or accuracy of the preparation of the doctoral dissertation.
